

Product Information and Traditional & Alternative Uses

This intoxicating scent cultured from the peels of the grapefruit hold a regenerative process that encourages the release of toxins that would normally go into storage throughout the body, including cellulite, and makes it an excellent diuretic that also stabilizes the blood by ensuring it's not too thin. Improved cardiovascular health and mood elevation and better brain functionality are common side effects of its use.

- | | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 AIR FRESHENER | 5 CANDIDA KILLER | 9 LUNG INFECTIONS |
| 2 ANTIBACTERIAL | 6 HANGOVER RELIEF | |
| 3 TONING SKIN | 7 STRESS | |
| 4 ACNE AND OILY SKIN | 8 DEPRESSION | |

Primary Use - Toning & Refreshening:

AIR FRESHENER: Use in a difuse throughout the day. Add a few drops to vacuum cleaner's filter.

ACNE AND OILY SKIN: Add 10 drops to a spray bottle after washing your face spritz you face and let air dry.

TONING SKIN: Combine 1/8 cup of camelina oil with 1/8 cup of avacado oil and 1/4 cup grated beeswax. Place in jar and add to a sauce pan with 2 inches of water over medium heat until beeswax desolves remove from heat. Immediately Add 25 drops of Aeroma orange. Apply as needed throughout the day.

HANGOVER RELIEF: Apply 2 drops to skin over the kidney and 2 drops to the throat. Add to a difuser and difuser throughout the day.

